

Dana Ratna Telegrams from Pharijong 1947

Business telegrams sent by Nepalese merchant Dana Ratna from Pharijong, Tibet to Kalimpong, India. The telegrams, handwritten on salvaged paper, are about goods forwarded by mule caravan. They are addressed to Lupau Ratna Tuladhar of Ghorashar business house. Phari, elevation 4,270 metres, was a transshipment point on the Kalimpong-Lhasa trade route where goods were transferred between caravans used to travelling over mountains and plain land.
